HISTORIAN

Hazen Bonow, Route #4, Box 509, Mountain Home, Ark 72653

Correspondence concerning membership dues, membership, orders for the "History", and other business matters should be sent to the Treasurer. Available back issues are $1.00 each.

Contributions of material for the "History" should be sent to the editor.

Neither the Society nor the Editor assume any responsibility for statements made by the contributors.

ANNUAL DUES ARE DUE AND PAYABLE TO THE TREASURER AT THE JANUARY MEETING. If you have not paid your dues please do so immediately. NEW MEMBERS MAY JOIN AT ANY TIME!

If your name is circled on the label of this publication our records show that you are delinquent.

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

I have been asked by a number of our members about the editorial policy of this publication. The following are some of the rules that should be followed. Other opinions are certainly welcome!

1. Items to be published should be researched to the point that they are factual, fair and accurate. We owe this to ourselves and to the future of those who may wish to rely on this record.

2. As this publication is of historical value, items to be printed should be as complete as possible. i.e. a family reunion means little if the ancestral background is not there so that the reunion does, in fact, bring those interested up to date.

3. Every effort must be made to capture data now that will not be available in the very near future. Just this year (January and February) we have lost forever the experiences and recollections of the following pioneers of the county: Sarah (Kirkland) Thorn; Charles Hodge; Herbert Partee; Johnie Jones; Lee Thorn; Arvie (Chapman) Hurst; Emma Eaton; HESSIE Dilbeck; George Woodbury; and Clarence Rosson.

4. Genealogical information must be kept in the forefront of our efforts. It keeps the availability of information in a stage of suspension until it can be pursued further.

NOTE: I found the time recently to catalog the material that has been printed in prior publications. I believe that I have done this in such a way that if anyone researching a given subject will call me I can give them finger tip information on what has been printed to date.

Lead material in future issues will include: Quimby Smith's - The Mountain Home Square, 50 years ago. The Crawford Family History. The McGuire Family History. Any one wishing to contribute to this material should contact the editor before it is too late and he prints something wrong

We are accumulating a huge amount of "odds and ends" material that would make a very interesting publication for one quarter. OK?

LOOKING BACKWARDS - THE BAXTER BULLETIN (February 27, 1903)

The Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad Company has forbidden the smoking of cigarettes by the employees. The President of the road says that the use of cigarettes tends to befog the mind and make one listless and careless in the discharge of his duties. "Experience has shown, says President Purdy, "that the confirmed cigarette smoker is sleepy and of no account; he becomes untrustworthy and lazy, In the railroad business, and especially among the trainmen, it requires a clear brain to discharge the responsibilities." ( Now let that larn ya!...Ed)

PROGRESS OF THE BAXTER COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

By Hazen Bonow - Historian

Saturday, October 15th - Clean up day at the Casey House. The grass was mowed, weeds cut down and shrubs trimmed. Old paint was scraped from the front part of the house and a primer coat was applied by Quimby Smith.

In front of the Casey House a spot was dug and filled with concrete preparing a place for the historical plaque to be placed. This being the site of the small building where the first court sessions were held after Baxter County came into existence.

The workers were Elizabeth and Quimby Smith, Roma and Emerson Stickford, Olive and Howard Knight and Hazen Bonow.

Tuesday, November 1st - Lynn McGuire, our speaker, was a drill instructor in the 332nd Japanese American Combat Battalion during World War II. Because of this experience and work with the California Insurance Agents Association he was selected to be chairman of a committee that has the responsibility for conducting an annual class for Japanese Insurance Executives at the University of California in Berkeley.

In 1972 he and his wife Willie were invited as guests of the Japanese Insurance Industry to spend three weeks in Japan.

He showed interesting and informative slides of Tokyo where they spent eight days. Tokyo is a city of small shops with beautiful parks and numerous Buddha and Shinto shrines. Many of these shrines have beautiful wood carvings. Some of the slides showed students on field trips. They all wore school uniforms.

About two and half hours from Tokyo, by train, is the Kejon Falls and Nekko National Park. Both are spectacular.

They visited Kyoto and Nara. At a shrine in Kyoto is a great bell which is rung by pulling back and releasing a suspended log which strikes the outside of the bell. This is used to celebrate rituals.

They went by train to Hiroshima passing farm lands of rice and groves of mandarin oranges. Rice is still harvested by hand. (However, Lynn's students preferred American rice) Hiroshima has been rebuilt as a modern city with wide streets. Only one building was left standing after the atom bomb blast. It is now a part of the Peace Memorial.

Tuesday, December 6th - Our President Lloyd Fisk, was sorry to announce our speaker, Burnett Pepper, was ill and unable to be present. After new and old business were taken care of the 1978 officers were elected. President Garvin Carroll; Vice President Quimby Smith; Secretary Roma Stickford; Treasurer Elizabeth Smith; Editor Lynn McGuire; Historian Hazen Bonow; and Social Chairman Alice Mae King.

Tuesday, January 3rd - Our Vice President Quimby Smith gave a very interesting program recalling how our town square looked during the years 1926 - 1929. Quimby sold GRIT papers so was in town everyday.

Slides have been made from old photos of the four sides of the Mountain Home Square. This program is being carefully reworked and edited by Quimby for our second quarterly publication of the year which should appear in May 1978.

From the Baxter Bulletin - January 23, 1903

J. H. Massion of Marysville, Kans., has torn down the old building on the Cardwell place on the north side of the square, and is erecting in its place a neat real estate office.

(I can find no record of this man or any reference to the Cardwell place.....Ed.)

From the Baxter Bulletin - January 27, 1928

Dr. H. F. Palenske, owner of the Lithia Springs between Gasville and Pleasant Run, was here this week. He says their resort is growing more popular with outside people each year, and he plans to build some cottages on the property for the accommodation of tourists.

(This pioneer doctor graduated from Western Dental College in Kansas City, Missouri in 1896 and came to Mountain Home by stage coach. He died of stroke in 1947.

R<sup>lx</sup> Bodenhamer recalls staying at this resort with his mother and grand-mother for his grand-mothers health. He also speaks of the agony of the doctor's foot operated dentist drill.

Lithia Springs seems to be called Kettle Springs and Indian Springs depending on who is telling the story.)

From the Baxter Bulletin - January 25, 1968

Jerry McGuire has been named the Outstanding Young Farmer in Baxter County by the Mountain Home Jaycees, in conjunction with the Nance Gas Company. McGuire was selected from among 12 eligible farmers in the area and will represent the county at the state OYF awards banquet Feb. 2 - 3 at Stuttgart. McGuire, his wife and six month old daughter, Kimberly, live about five miles northwest of Mountain Home. He operates a 320 acre diary farm in partnership with his father, Edgar McGuire and brother Larry.

(Other children of this family are: Jimmie, professor of agriculture at the University of Arkansas; Marleen, a teacher at Siloam Springs; Margaret, a teacher at Siloam Springs; Larry and Blake who have joined the family partnership.) (Their mother Gladys was a daughter of Marcus Hargraves who was with the Arkansas Highway Department for many years. He lived where Zelk now has his salvage yard on Highway 5 North.)

Dear Sir

I am preparing a family history of the KEHELEY family who lived in Arkansas off and on from around 1900 to 1950. They lived in Mountain Home and Flippen. I am interested in obtaining any information that you may have on the family. Some of the names I am interested in are:

Joseph Green Keheley - ~~great~~ grandfather - buried in Rogers, Arkansas.

Millard Washington Keheley - grandfather - buried in Flippen.

Thomas Luther Keheley - great uncle.

I am willing to pay costs of reproducing material. I am enclosing a self addressed stamped envelope for your convenience.

Sincerely

/s/ Ed Keheley

THE G. N. NELSON AND GEORGE AND JOSEPH EUBANK

FAMILY REUNIONS

Much of the information that follows will be outside the immediate three families but must be told in order to first; up date the affairs and genealogy of the family second; put family members in proper relation to each other and third; to encourage other family units that have come from the William Nelson and Thomas W. Eubank lines to come forward so that the story may be a continuing one.

These three families come to-gether in reunion because of family ties that are possibly stronger than some. Brothers married sisters and, the fact, that they chose to remain close to-gether in the community of Buford.

Thomas W. Eubank, whose father's name was Martin, came from North Carolina to Tennessee to Tupelo, Mississippi. He and his wife Martha Roberts Eubank moved from Tupelo to Buford soon after the Civil War.

He served in the Mississippi Cavalry from 1863 to 1865. He was hospitalized twice and once was a prisoner of war.

They are buried at Buford in the Nelson family cemetery just south of Mountain Home.

Their sons George and Joseph E. were just ages 8 and 9 years old at the time of the move. These two brothers married two of William Nelson's daughters Mary and Elizabeth.

They were carpenters, blacksmiths, shoe cobblers, mechanics, butchers and hunters. George built the stone jail in Mountain Home in 1865.

Joseph Eubank died in 1936. Elizabeth in 1940. Their children were: Emma, Vanetta, Oscar, Benjamin, James, twins Earl and Pearl, Brian, Stella and Fay. Fay is the only survivor at the date of this writing. She lives in Memphis, Tennessee.

George and Mary Eubank's children were: Ton, Cassie, Jess, Luther, Lougilla, Newt, Jim and Joe. All are deceased.

The Nelson family along with twenty other families left Lee County, Mississippi, October 11, 1870 destined for Texas Territory. They had two wagons, a hack for the family to ride in, a saddle mare and two dogs. One of the wagons was drawn by a yoke of oxen.

On November 11, just a month later, ten wagons arrived at Sam Curtis' trading post, eight miles south of Mountain Home. Their trip to Texas was cancelled because of reports of drought in the area they wished to settle. However, parts of this family did go on to Texas in later years.

William Nelson bought a farm and settled on Jenkin's Creek. He soon traded this farm for a larger one in the Mississippi Bend of the White River where many of his former neighbors had already settled.

He was born in Lee County, near Tupelo, in 1829 and received his education there. His first marriage was to Martha Carter. The children born of this marriage were: a son that died in childhood; Mary (married George Eubank); Catherine (married Robert Bussey); Elizabeth (married Joseph Eubank); Jessie N. ; James A.; and George Newton.

He served in Forrest's Cavalry in the Civil War rising to the rank of captain.

Martha died in Mississippi and William remarried before coming to Arkansas. For his second wife he took his first wife's sister Amelia (Dena). This reference to (Dena) is found in Mary Ann Messick's HISTORY OF BAXTER COUNTY. It is not known now whether this was a surname from a previous marriage or was a nickname. William and Amelia and the seven children made the journey to Arkansas.

The living children born of this second marriage were: Beula (married Clain Lonon); Lilly (married Tuscarora Patterson); and Oscar who died single and is buried in Fairview Cemetery near Buford. There were infant children born that are buried in the Nelson Cemetery.

Following the death of his second wife he was married a third time. This was to Ann Adams. They had one son Robert A. Nelson.

William retired in 1888. His four sons: Jesse; William; James; and George Newton continued the family business which consisted of a grocery store, cotton gin, flour and grist mill, a saw mill and a blacksmith shop.

He died in May 1889 and is buried at Fairview Cemetery.

In 1883 Jesse A. Nelson married Elizabeth Adams a sister to his father's third wife.

He bought the mill and gin from the other heirs. In 1905 he sold his home in Buford and moved to Mathis, Texas where he died in 1937.

The children of Jesse A. and Elizabeth Nelson were: J. W.; Ben; Eula (married a Williams); May (married a Fusselman); Ruth (Married a Hayes); and Guillian (married a Douglas).

William B. Nelson, after the death of his fiancée, moved to the Promise Land area near Three Borthers. He married Ellen Griffin and they were the parents of: Betty, Lilly, Margaret, Alma and James A.

This James A. Nelson married Lula Todd and their children were James A. Nelson, Jr. (a well known artist specializing in wood carvings of birds); Clifford; Bob; William; Shirley; Jordie; Barbara; Patsey; Mable and Buddy.

James A. Nelson, Jr. married Janet Lee and they are the parents of James III, Donovan, Clint and Preston Wade.

James A. Nelson of Buford purchased the store and home of his father William Nelson, from the heirs, and continued business until 1906 when he sold out to J. C. Hopper and moved to Mathis, Texas.

He married Ann Adams Nelson, his father's third wife and their children were twin sons Ran and Van.

Robert A. Nelson, son of William's third marriage to Ann Adams Nelson, married Florence Hopper daughter of the man to whom James A. Nelson sold his business. Their children were: Gertrude (married a Westbrook); and Grace (married a Guice). They later moved to Texas but being dissatisfied there returned to the Quality Ridge area north of Mountain Home. Some present family members feel that it might have been East Oakland instead of Quality Ridge.

George Newton Nelson, the third and youngest son of William's first marriage, lived in Buford for 50 years. He was appointed postmaster at Buford by President Grover Cleveland in 1889.

His business career began in 1894 when he built a two room store at Buford and at one time he owned 916 acres of land in that area. From this land he became the area's largest business man and farmer.

He was known as the "hog king", "egg king", and "wheat king". In one of the World War I years he shipped 1000 bushels of wheat to Europe via New Orleans. One year they baled 2700 bales of straw. In yet another time packed 1100 dozen eggs in cotton and shipped them by wagon to West Plains, Missouri.

He went on to install the latest models of stationary farm equipment which he used in his own business as well as doing work for other farmers for which he received a "toll" of grain or straw.

He traded his kerosene engine powered baler for an International truck that was used by the Nelson Truck Line which in the 1930's operated in conjunction with the Nelson Cash Store in Mountain Home, hauling between Mountain Home, West Plains and Springfield, Missouri. Later this truck line became a commercial carrier for freight and farm products. It was finally sold to Fred Morris and Chunk Wooks.

The Nelson Cash Store was purchased from Fisk Grocery and was located on the northeast corner of the city square.

On July 1, 1891 George Newton Nelson married Nammie June Davis of Fort Payne, Alabama. To this union were born eleven children. All in the same house. They were: Jesse (married Irl Paul) both died in 1977; Ernest F. (deceased 1961) a veteran of World War I, pharmacist and druggist in Missouri; William Fay (married Jewell Tracy) veteran of World War I, county treasurer, Mountain Home postmaster and county judge; Arthur (married Lavada Boyce) minister of education and singer; Walter (deceased 1924); Gerald (married Adele Herron (deceased 1972) minister of education and music and a retailer; Jewell (deceased 1977) a Mountain Home school teacher for whom Nelson-Wilks Elementary School is named; Earl (married Marie Koonce) veteran of World War II, an appeals referee for the State Security Division; Imogene (married Dr. James Lowe); Neil (married Euna Langston) veteran of World War II, president of Peoples Bank and Trust Company; and Lavon (married Fremon Estep).

In 1920 George Newton Nelson sold his home, store and farm in Buford to J. C. Hopper and R. C. Love and moved to Mountain Home. In 1921 he moved into a home purchased from Dr. A. J. Brewer. (This was the southeast corner of 9th and Main Streets now occupied by Baxter Appliance Company.)

In 1930 he was forced to retire from the Nelson Cash Store after he suffered a stroke.

He died in 1954 at the age of 88. His wife Nannie Jane Davis Nelson died in 1967 at the age of 92.

He often said that the greatest honor and proudest moment of his life came at a Sunday meeting where one son preached, another son led the choir and a daughter played the piano.

Ernest F. Nelson died single in 1961. Walter Nelson died single in 1924 at the age of 21, following surgery, in Kansas City.

Children of Jessie Nelson Paul are: Rex Nelson Paul (married Neva Hill); Nannie Lee (married Kenneth Trammell).

Arthur G. Nelson's daughter is Jo Nan (married Lee Smith)

Children of Gerald Nelson are: Herron G.; Jerry; Julia Dell and Roger.

Earl Nelson's step-son is Joseph M. Koonce.

Children of George Neil Nelson are: Robert Neil (married Ann Joyce); Larry (married Brenda Dill); and Thomas Lee (married Sandy Miller).

Children of Lavon Nelson Estep are: Joe James and Michael T.

In the pictorial section of this publication are pictures of family and friends of two reunions of these families. The large picture was made in June 1947. The two smaller pictures were made about 30 years later at the reunion held the 25th and 26th of June 1977.

About eighty five persons attended the reunion held on the 25th and 26th of June 1977. The first day, Saturday, was an open house at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Magness. Mrs. Magness is the daughter of Nannie Lee Paul Trammell and Kenneth Trammell. Mrs. Ollie Eubank, who is in her nineties, was able to attend on this day. She is the widow of Luther Eubank, the third son of George Eubank.

The next day, Sunday, the group met at the Mountain Home Legion Hut. Mrs. Dicie Eubank was able to attend on this day. She is the widow of Newt Eubank, George Eubank's fourth son, and mother of Ralph Eubank shown in the picture of the Nelson-Eubank heirs.

Fay Eubank Wilshusen, Joe Eubank's only surviving child, was in attendance both days. Her picture will be found in the pictorial section. She is seated between Fay Nelson and Ralph Eubank on the front row of Picture #1.

All of those attending this reunion say there was no formal program. The group was so large that every one seemed to find themselves a part of a small group and was kept busy and interested in "remembering when" and comparing pictures of their various offspring.

Much of the research for the above story was done through the use of Mary Ann Messick's HISTORY OF BAXTER COUNTY. My personal thanks go to Fay Nelson and Neil Nelson for assistance in identifying members in the three photographs and to Nannie Lee Paul Trammell for gathering other information.....Lynn McGuire, Editor.

It was purely coincidence that the first entry on Ralph and Irma Bloom's Genealogical Information Baxter County, Arkansas would show the July 1, 1891 Baxter County marriage date of George Newt Nelson to Nannie Davis.
